

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be applied to Peg Margeson; and,

Whereas, Peg graduated from Northern State College in 1973, obtaining her teaching degree; and,

Whereas, Peg began her teaching career at the Faulkton Area School District, and for the past 39 years, she continued to teach at Faulkton, South Dakota, as the second grade teacher; and,

Whereas, In 1974, Peg started a bird project through the National Science Foundation and has involved her students in this project ever since to feed and water the birds on the Faulkton school grounds; and,

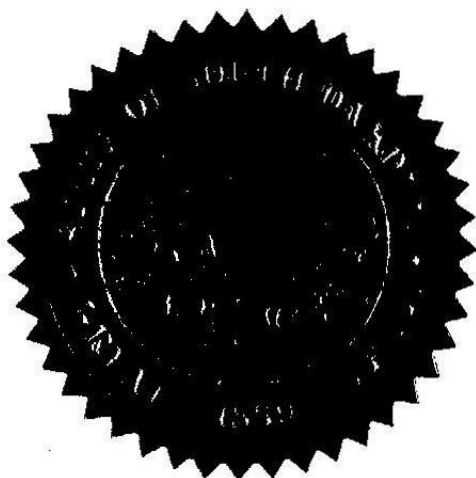

Whereas, Peg is a member of the St. Paul Lutheran Church in Roscoe, South Dakota. She has been a member of the South Dakota Education Association for the past 39 years and is the local treasurer; and,

Whereas, Peg will be celebrating her retirement for 39 years of service with the Faulkton Area School District on May 17, 2012:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 17, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join with her colleagues and friends in wishing her a fulfilling and happy retirement.

PEG MARGESON DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fifth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard
Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Jason M. Gant
Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State